1. Late in September 1951, twenty-four Junker technicians, who had returned to Dessau after a period of work in Russia, were kidnapped by the Russians and returned to Russia. Source identifies three of the technicians as follows:

- a. Schorlauer (fnu)
- b. Singer (fnu)
- c. Auerswald (fnu), engineer and former chief of engine construction, who went to the USSR in 1946, returned to Germany in the fall of 1950, and worked with EKM as technical director.

2. According to Source, the twenty-four repatriated technicians were picked up by the Russians on 22 September 1951 and their families were notified that the individuals concerned had done nothing wrong and that no harm would come to them.
